1.8 Negative impact on trade caused by Weak institutions

- Poor management contributes to delays at the port, reducing the efficiency of trade.
- Weak institutions also increase risks at the border, with cumbersome customs procedures and the imposition of goods at entry.
- High tariffs and fees further burden the trade process, causing delays and additional costs for businesses.
- Weak institutions also contribute to corruption, which can increase costs and reduce the reliability of the trade process.
- Lack of proper infrastructure and logistics can also contribute to delays and inefficiencies in the trade process.
